TAKES DEFEAT CALMLY.

The British press has taken the defeat of the League of Nations by the Senate more calmly than most people expected. The reason is not far to seek. It is that it could not do otherwise without opening the eyes of their countrymen to the effect the continued denial of political justice to Ireland has on the Liberty-loving people of the United States. Probably at no time in their history have Americans hated

and distrusted England as much as they do at this present hour. British hypocrisy and British cant are the roots of this hostile sentiment; for

while England is prating about liberty, her hirelings in Ireland and other equally unfortunate parts of the world are busy jailing and beating and murdering those who acknowledge that the word Liberty

belongs to their political vocabulary.

LEAGUE IN CANADA.

An Irish race convention will be held in Montreal this summer in favor of self-determination for

Ireland and to further the objects

and work of the convention an Irish-Canadian league has been formed. Branches will be organized

all over the Dominion, from Halifax

to Vancouver, with the headquarters in Montreal.

BIG SONG HIT.

The new song, "Ireland the Foot-stool of Heaven," has won the hearty approval of every Liberty

loving American, regardless of nationality or creed, and is in great demand everywhere. This song is meeting with success in schools and homes. All dealers are selling the sheet music and rolls for player

pianos.

BIRTHDAY.

The Most Rev. Austin Dowling,

Archbishop of St. Paul, was born in New York City fifty-two years ago Monday, and the occasion was remembered by his friends in all parts of the country; the good Archbishop being deluged with congratulations.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Mary M. Keller, aged forty-eight, were held Thursday morning at the Church of Our Lady. She is survived by her husband, Albert P. Keller, 3127 West-ern Parkway.

John Krenner, a widely known member of Holy Trinity church, died Monday night at his home, 1132 East St. Catherine street. Surviving him are two brothers and two sisters. His funeral took place Wednesday morning.

John J. O'Rourke, forty-nine years old, died Sunday night at his home, 652 East F street. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary A. Clark O'Rourke. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at St. Philip Neri church, conducted by Rev. Father Ackermann.

Miss Mary H. Schneider, thirty years old, beloved daughter of Fred J. Schneider, 836 East Burnett avenue, passed from this life Monday morning, her death mourned by a wide circle of acquaintances. She was a faithful member of St. Elizabeth's church, from which the funeral took place Wednesday morning.

Jerry Delaney, for many years a well-known grocer in the West End and a regular communicant at St. Cecilia's church, died Sunday night at his home, 2532 Bank street, the announcement being received with expressions of sorrow everywhere. He is survived by two brothers, Patrick and John Delaney, and a sister, Miss Mary Delaney. Funeral services were held with requiem mass Wednesday morning.

Holy Name parish mourns the death of another aged and highly esteemed member, Mrs. Katie Quick, widow of the late George W. Quick, 1910 South Third street. She is survived by three sons, Thomas R., Charles Edward, Louisville, and James E. Quick, Cleveland; two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Hanne-stein, Louisville, and Mrs. E. G. Ritchie, Cleveland, and one brother and three sisters. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, Rev. Father John O'Connor celebrat-ing this requiem high mass.

HAPPY UNION.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kelley announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Zell, to William Curran. The marriage took place Monday, April 5, at the St. Louis Bertrand church, the Rev. Father Lyons officiating. The wedding was followed by a break-fast at the home of the bride's parents for members of the two immediate families, after which Mr. and Mrs. Curran left on their wedding trip to New York and other points East.

LONG EUROPEAN TRIP.

Miss Maggie Geher and Miss Clara Discher left the first of the week for a trip to Europe. They were to sail from St. Johns, N. B., on April 8, and will visit France, Italy, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, England, Scotland and Ireland. The trip includes a ten-day automobile tour through the Chateaux country of France and five days among the battle fronts.

ALUMNI MEETING.

A general meeting of the St. Xavier College Alumni has been called by the Executive Committee for next Tuesday night at the college auditorium. It is desired that all members be present, as the proceedings promise to be of great interest.

QUEEN'S DAUGHTERS.

The Queen's Daughters held their annual meeting and election of officers yesterday afternoon, too late to be reported in this issue. Much satisfaction was manifested when the reports were read and the work of the past year was reviewed.

GOING TO CHINA.

Miss Agnes Shea, of Seymour, Ind., cousin of Judge James W. Fortune, of Jeffersonville, has departed for Santiago, Chili, where she will make her home with her brother, Ambassador Joseph H. Shea, formerly of Scottsburg.

NEW ALBANY.

Rev. Father Seibert, pastor of St. Mary's church, delivered an eloquent and entertaining address Wednesday night at the meeting of New Albany Council, Knights of Columbus. The hall was filled with members.

SARTO CLUB MET.

The Sarto Literary Club met Wednesday evening with Mrs. E. J. Hackett at her home in New Albany. An entertaining programme was enjoyed by all present, the numbers including subjects of more than ordinary interest.

ANOTHER HUNDRED.

Ma-Kin Council members are enthused over the success of its Lenten drive, which will end with the initiation of a class of about 100 candidates on Sunday, April 11. President McGuire and the degree team are making elaborate preparations for this event and expect all the old-time members to be present to witness the work, which will be almost entirely new to many.

ECLIPSES.

There will be two eclipses in 1920, two of the sun and two of the moon. The first will be a total eclipse of the moon on May 2; the next will be a partial eclipse of the sun, May 17; the next a total eclipse of the moon, October 27, and the last a partial eclipse of the sun, November 10.

CAPITAL PICKETS.

Woman sympathizers with the republican movement in Ireland last week began picketing the British Embassy at Washington. Embassy officials said no complaint had been made to the police. The women marched to the Capitol, but were turned away by Capitol police. They made their appearance again on Monday, when two were arrested, but others took their places. It is contended they are violating the law, which is not in any way their object.

Wednesday the women transferred their activities from the Embassy to the State Department. Resumption of the patrol in front of the British Embassy has been definitely postponed until after the trial next Monday of the four pickets now under arrest.

FRENCH TO RESIGN.

The Dublin Freeman's Journal, in an article Saturday, advances the belief that Field Marshal Viscount French is to resign his post as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and that he will be succeeded by Lord Decies.

French's administration has been in every way a failure and one of the worst to which Ireland has yet been subjected.

CARDINAL O'CONNELL.

Cardinal O'Connell, of Boston, will shortly start for Europe to make his ad limina visit to the Vatican, which, because of the war, had to be postponed. The Cardinal will remain abroad only long enough to fulfill the required mission of his office, returning to re-engage in the completion of certain diocesan work and undertaking the fundamen-tals for further works of this kind that he has in mind.

JUST THEIR KIND.

The fact that Hoover lived out of the United States for eighteen years and never voted, and worked for a foreign government, seems to make the Anglo-American press just what Hoover is just their kind.

TAKES NERVE.

It takes nerve for newspapers to announce for President a man who drew foreign pay all his life and who maintains a residence in London, and who never voted in this country. Just think of it!

PHOTOS OF GRAVES.

The American Red Cross has photographed all but 3,000 of the 60,000 graves of Americans who lost their lives in the war. These photographs have been sent to the families of the fallen heroes.
